

January 28th, 2022

Dear Valued YANG MING Customer:

EC4: MV Madrid Bridge 016E/W

As per Customer Advisory dated January 21, 2022, MV Madrid Bridge, serving in our East Coast 4 (EC4) Service, suffered container collapse in the North Atlantic Ocean during transit to her next port of call in New York, USA.

Based on vessel operator's update, the vessel has safely arrived and berthed in Charleston as planned. After completing the necessary vessel inspections and cargo discharging operations, the vessel is expected to depart Charleston on or around January 31, 2022, without guarantee and subject to change. For schedule arrangement, please find Madrid Bridge's updated port rotation after calling Charleston, without guarantee and subject to change:

Port	ETA	ETB	ETD	Cargo Arrangement
Charleston	19-Jan-22	24-Jan-22	31-Jan-22	For Discharging Only
Savannah	31-Jan-22	1-Feb-22	3-Feb-22	For Discharging Only
Norfolk	5-Feb-22	5-Feb-22	6-Feb-22	For Discharging Only
New York	7-Feb-22	9-Feb-22	12-Feb-22	For Loading and Discharging
Singapore	8-Mar-22	8-Mar-22	10-Mar-22	For Loading and Discharging

More details on the schedule recovery and cargo arrangement will be advised once information is available.

We regret the inconvenience caused and thank you for your understanding in this regard. Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact your sales account representative for additional information.

Sincerely,

Yang Ming Marine Transport Corporation